To whom it may concern:

If your church or ministry is passionate about reaching non-believers and the unchurched for Christ, then I enthusiastically recommend a phenomenal seminar called "Worldview Training." Dr. Freddy Davis, MarketFaith Ministries, Inc. of Tallahassee, Florida facilitates this training. In my opinion, he has discovered the magic bullet that takes away the fear of sharing the gospel witness with anyone, regardless of what they believe.

Dr. Davis held a Worldview Training seminar at our church and did a fantastic job. He provided us with the foundational basis for every religion, cult and philosophy in existence; moreover, and how to witness effectively to them. Our training involved a retooling and equipping for better evangelistic outreach. Thus, we are now able to better interact with non-believers through evangelism in our various spheres of influence.

Finally, the resources offered by MarketFaith Ministries in this area are superb! The print materials and audio messages are not complicated but are clear, concise and very motivational. Again, if your ministry seeks to honor and obey the Lord's command to share the gospel message in a growing diverse culture, then Worldview Training is necessary and MarketFaith Ministries can deliver, so schedule your Worldview Training with them today!

For His Kingdom,
